

D'Alessio & Associates Inc Names Vice President
Bookkeeping firm preserves its homegrown pedigree

KEENE, NH, November 1, 2019: D'Alessio & Associates Inc, a private bookkeeping and accounting services firm, today announced the promotion of Diane Langlois to Vice President. Effective immediately, Ms. Langlois assumes responsibility for operations and client services. Founder Stephen D'Alessio will focus on special projects, organizational growth and client relations.

From the company's founding in 1989, D'Alessio & Associates Inc has been recognized as one of the leading bookkeeping and accounting service providers offering creative and cost-effective solutions for a wide range of private, public and non-profit organizations within New England.

Diane's commitment to clients, staff and community, along with her professional expertise, reflects my values when founding the company 30 years ago, said president, Stephen D'Alessio. In the years ahead, I'm excited to work with Diane and our entire team to continue our client and community-focused approach to providing professional bookkeeping services.

About Diane Langlois

A graduate of Keene State College, Diane joined D'Alessio & Associates Inc in 1998. A 30+ year resident of Keene, Ms. Langlois has a dual BS degree in Economics and Business Management. She is also a certified special educator. Diane founded the booster club for Keene High Unified Sports, is a member of St. Vincent de Paul of Keene, and serves on the finance council for her church. Ms. Langlois lives in Keene with her husband and two sons.
